

Store Manager

Company profile:

Our Client is a premium lifestyle home accessories brand with products across various categories ranging from dining, décor, table top to barware. It has been a pioneer in its segment and today has a presence in 20 countries across the world. After receiving success and recognition in India through the modern trade channel, It forayed into retail and currently has four exclusive boutiques.

Its one of the few brands from India that has ventured on a global level. It also happens to be the first Indian company to have been awarded the prestigious design award - red dot and not once but thrice.

Being a young and medium sized organization it provides one ample opportunities to grow and learn. Fortunately the approach and spirit is of embracing change which is the keystone to success in today's dynamic world.
